

The Intendence Film Festival

IFF 2016 Call for Entries

Updated 25 Mar2016

The Intendence Film Festival (IFF) is accepting submissions through early May. See the dates below. We will be screening films from Colorado and the rest of the world on Friday and Saturday, June 24 - 25, at the Open Media Foundation (OMF), 700 Kalamath St, Denver, CO. The festival includes a red carpet opening night and post-screening Q&A sessions. Both are live-broadcast via cable and Internet web streaming from OMF's television studio facilities. There is an after-party each evening following the Q&A's. An Awards Brunch will be held on Sunday, June 26.

About IFF

IFF is a community-focused experience held in late June at the Open Media Foundation in the heart of Denver's Santa Fe Arts District. Our absolute desire is to engender a festive atmosphere where both filmmakers and the film-viewing public can connect, communicate, and have a remarkable time.

As actors and filmmakers who have chosen to live in Colorado, we are inspired to highlight the extraordinary skills of local writers, producers, filmmakers, and artistic talent while attracting first-rate storytellers from all over the world. The very best of their film submissions are selected by a team of experienced judges and screened during the Festival.

Submission information

Categories are: Animation, Art-Experimental, Feature, Short, Documentary, Documentary-Short, Music Video, Fantasy/ Science Fiction & Horror, Student/Young Filmmaker, and Webisode.

Submissions can be made through withoutabox.com or filmfeeway.com.
